

IDENTIFY AND INTERPRET SYMBOLS

COMPUTER SYMBOLS

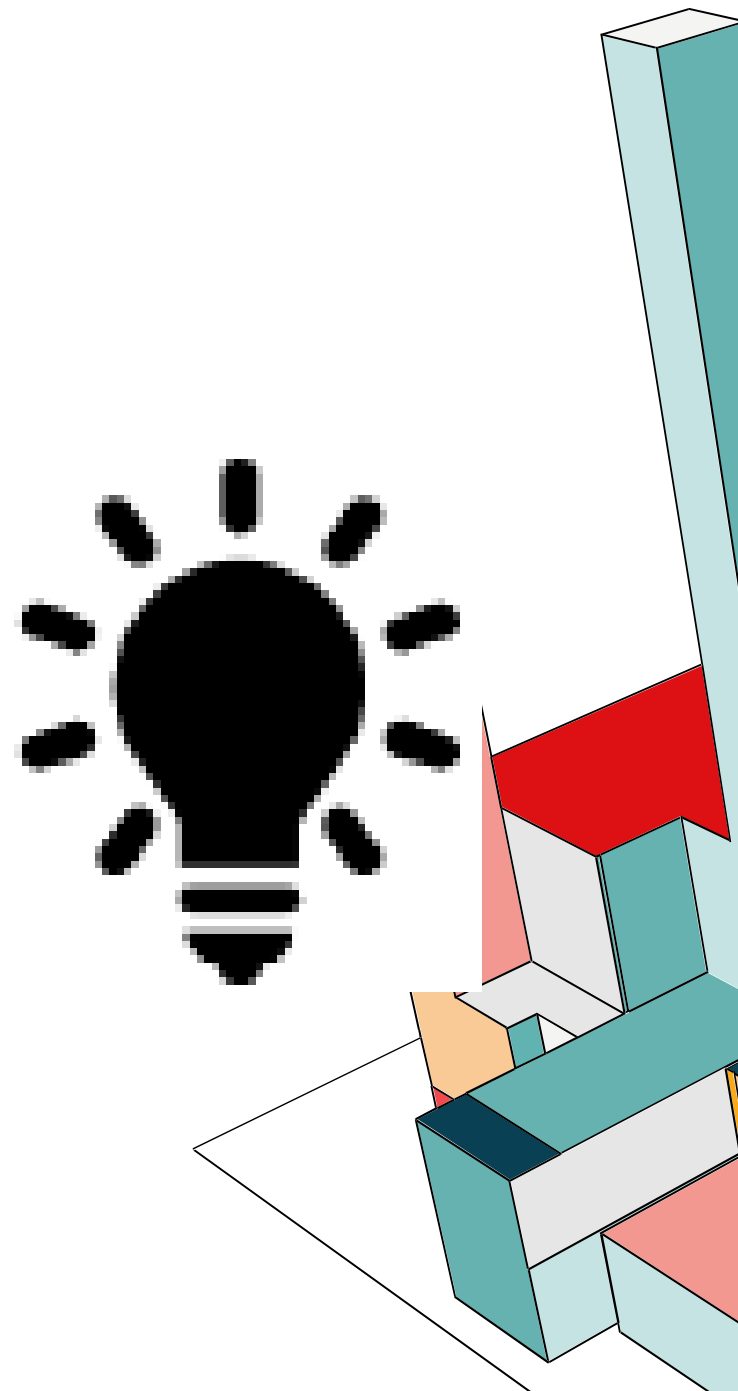

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 1. A question mark symbol represents a question and allows you to access help or online documentation.

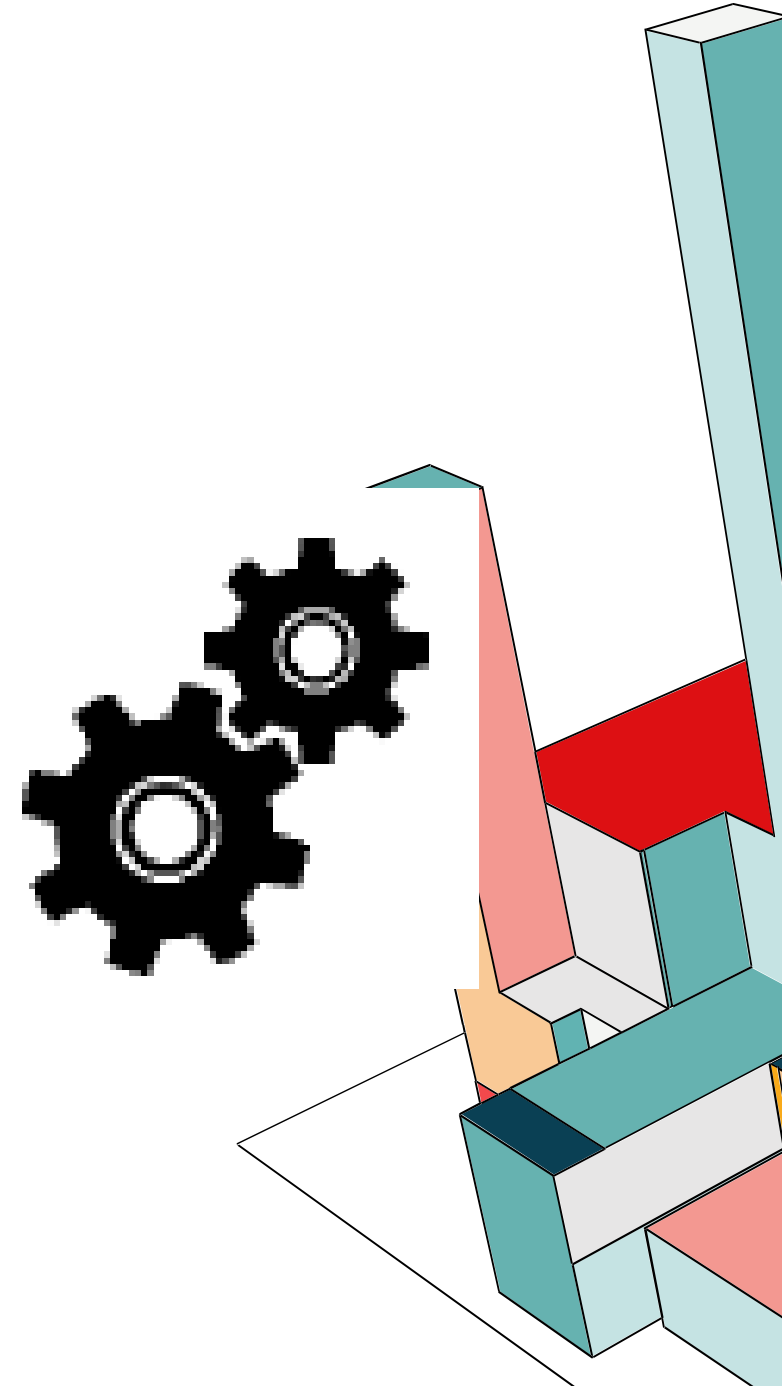

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 2. A light bulb icon symbol represents a tip or an idea. For example, on this page, we have several tips that can be quickly identified with the light bulb next to the word "Tip."

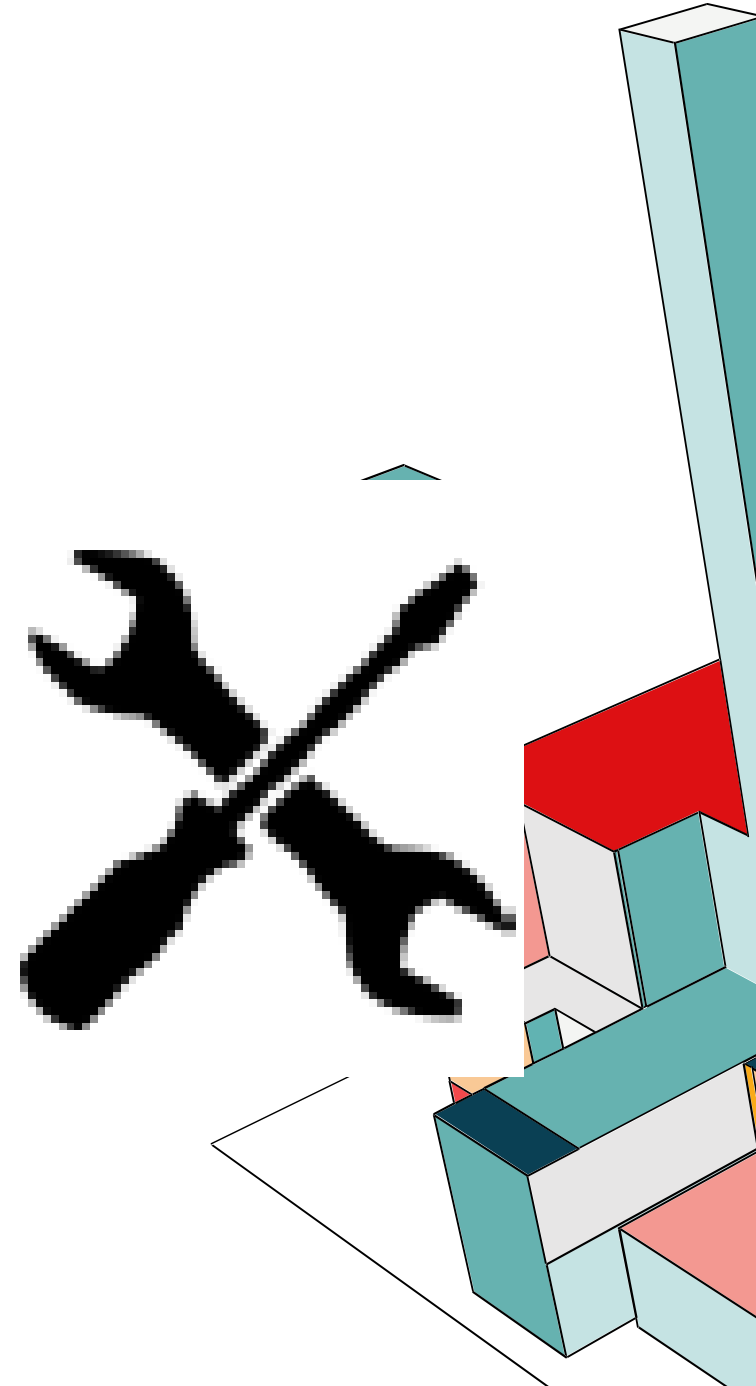

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 3. The gear symbol indicates a configuration or settings option.
- Online services may use a gear icon for the area that lets you change your account settings.

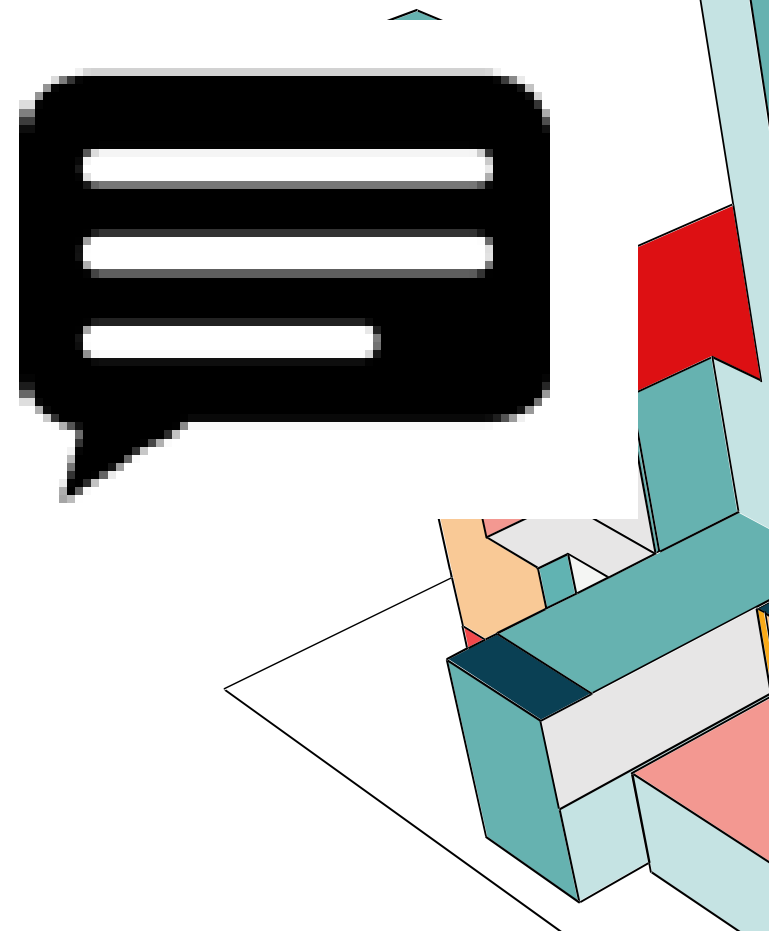

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 4. A symbol with a wrench and a screwdriver is another symbol that can be used in place of the gear to indicate an area to adjust the settings or other options.

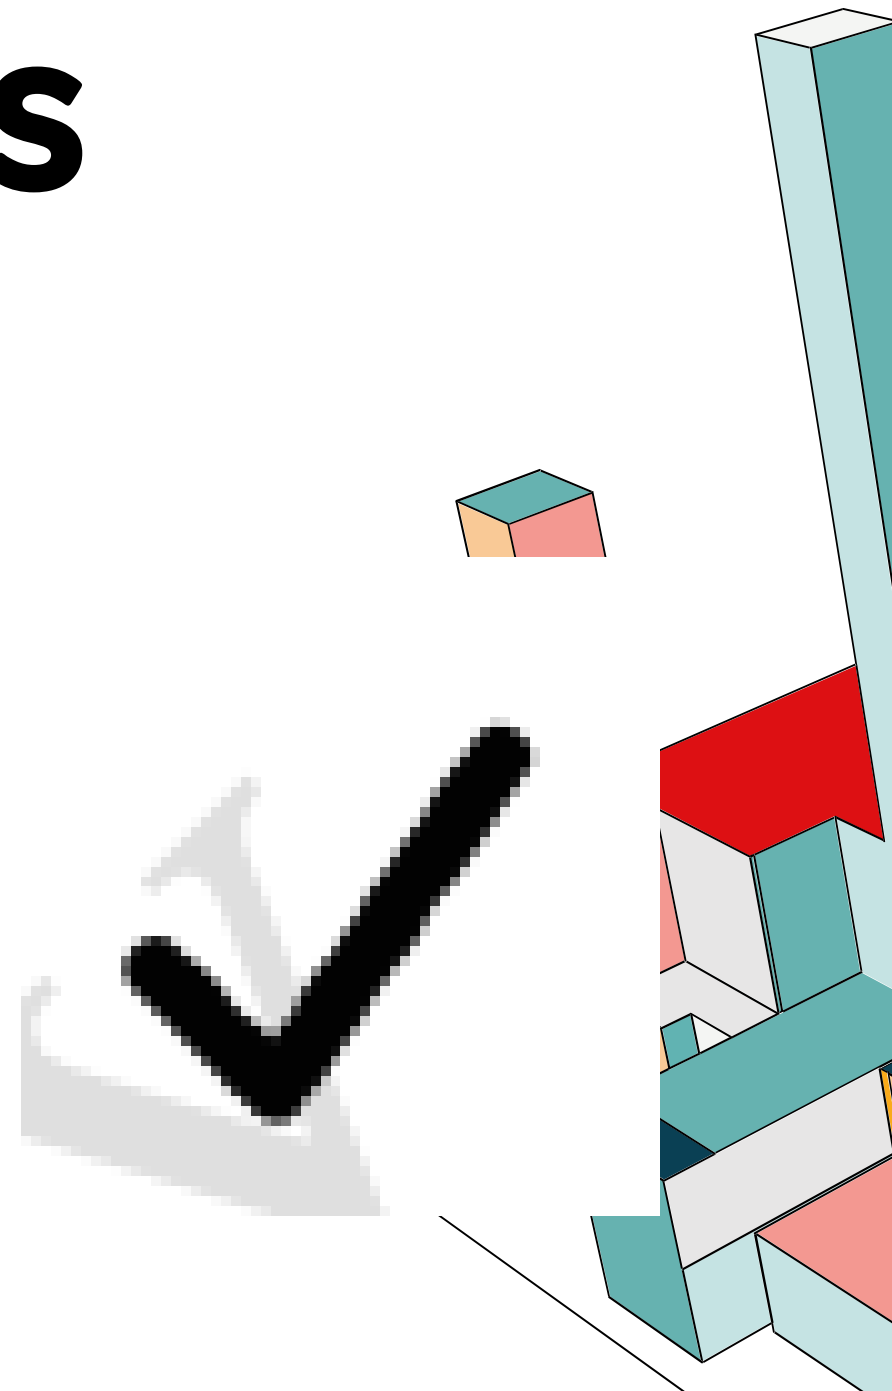

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 5. A speech bubble symbol is used in communications to indicate there is a message that needs to be read or that someone is typing a message.

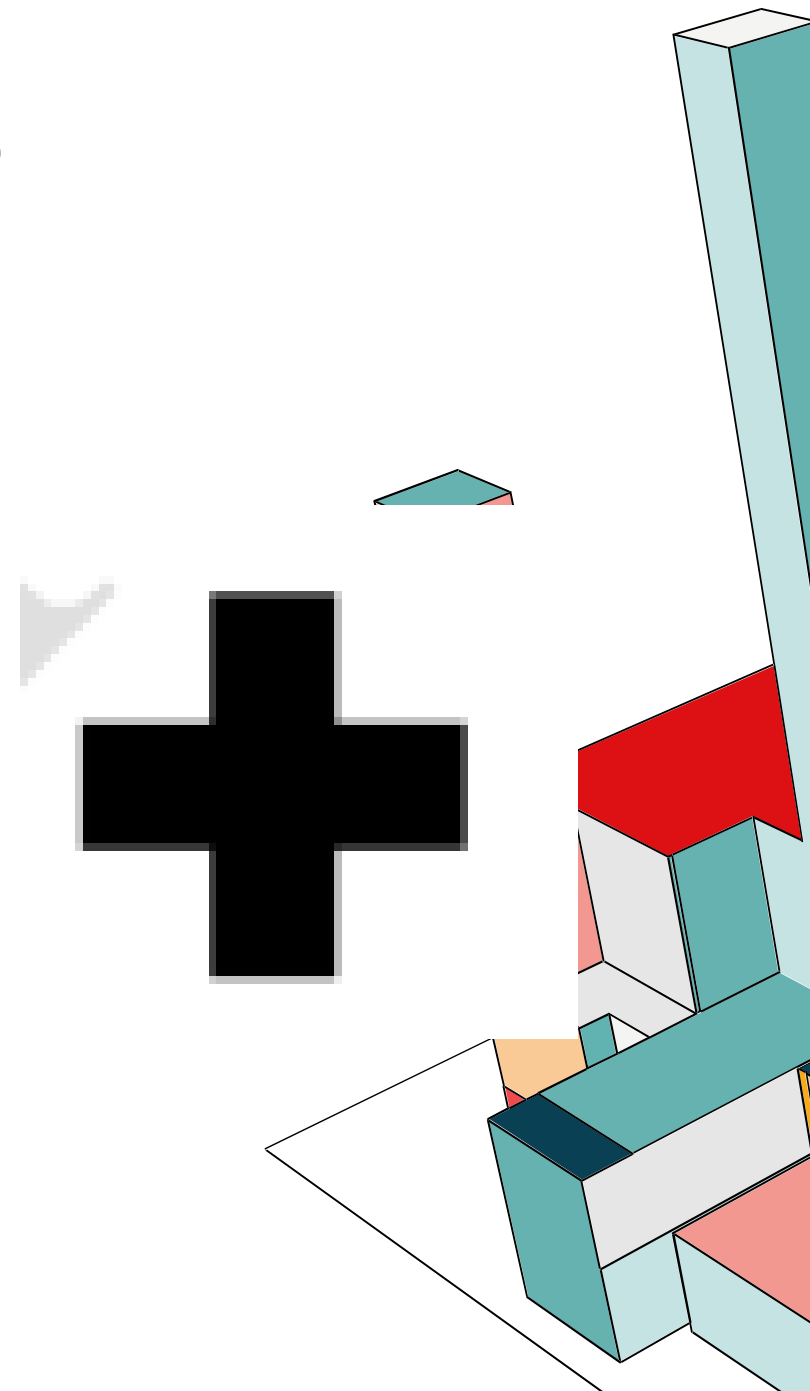

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 6. The check mark symbol indicates completion or that something is ok.

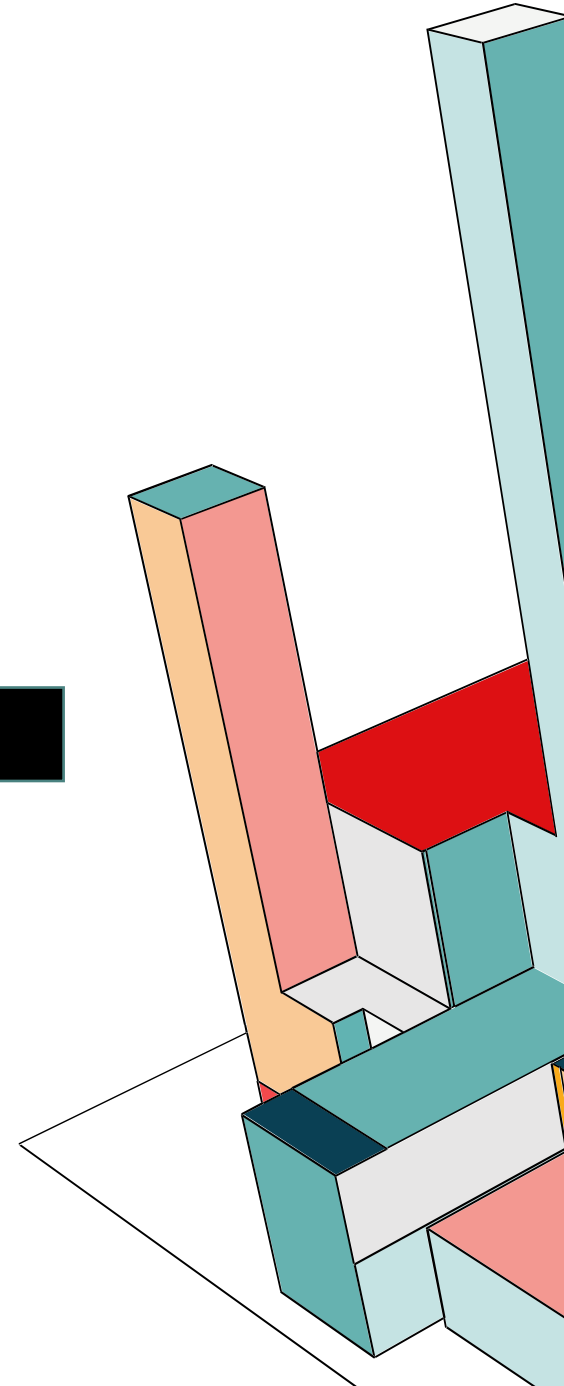

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 7. A plus symbol or a horizontal line crossing a vertical line is also a symbol used as an indication to increase, add, move down, or zoom in on software programs and hardware devices.

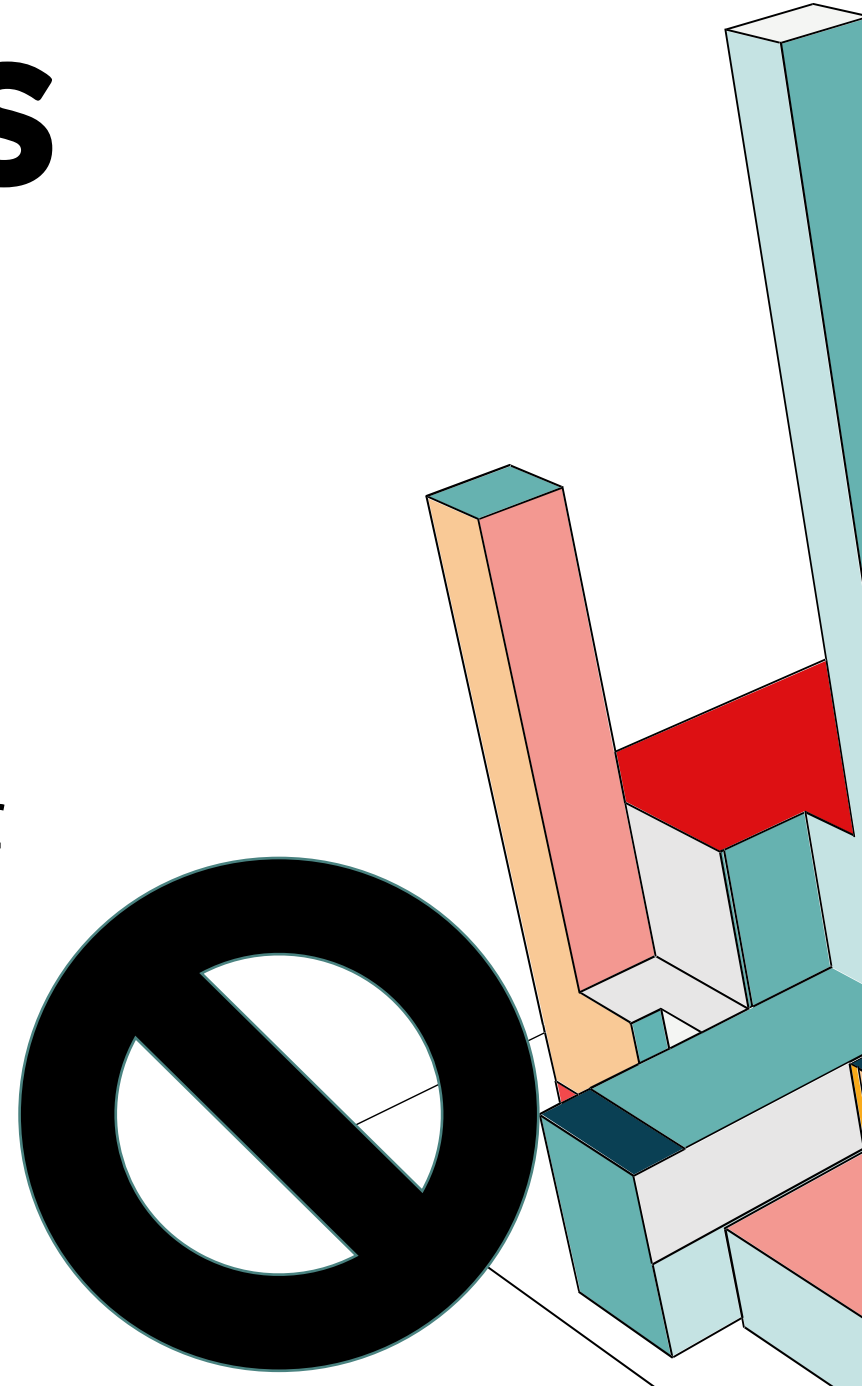

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 8. A minus symbol or a horizontal line is a symbol used as an indication for decreasing, removing, moving up, or zooming out on software programs and hardware devices.

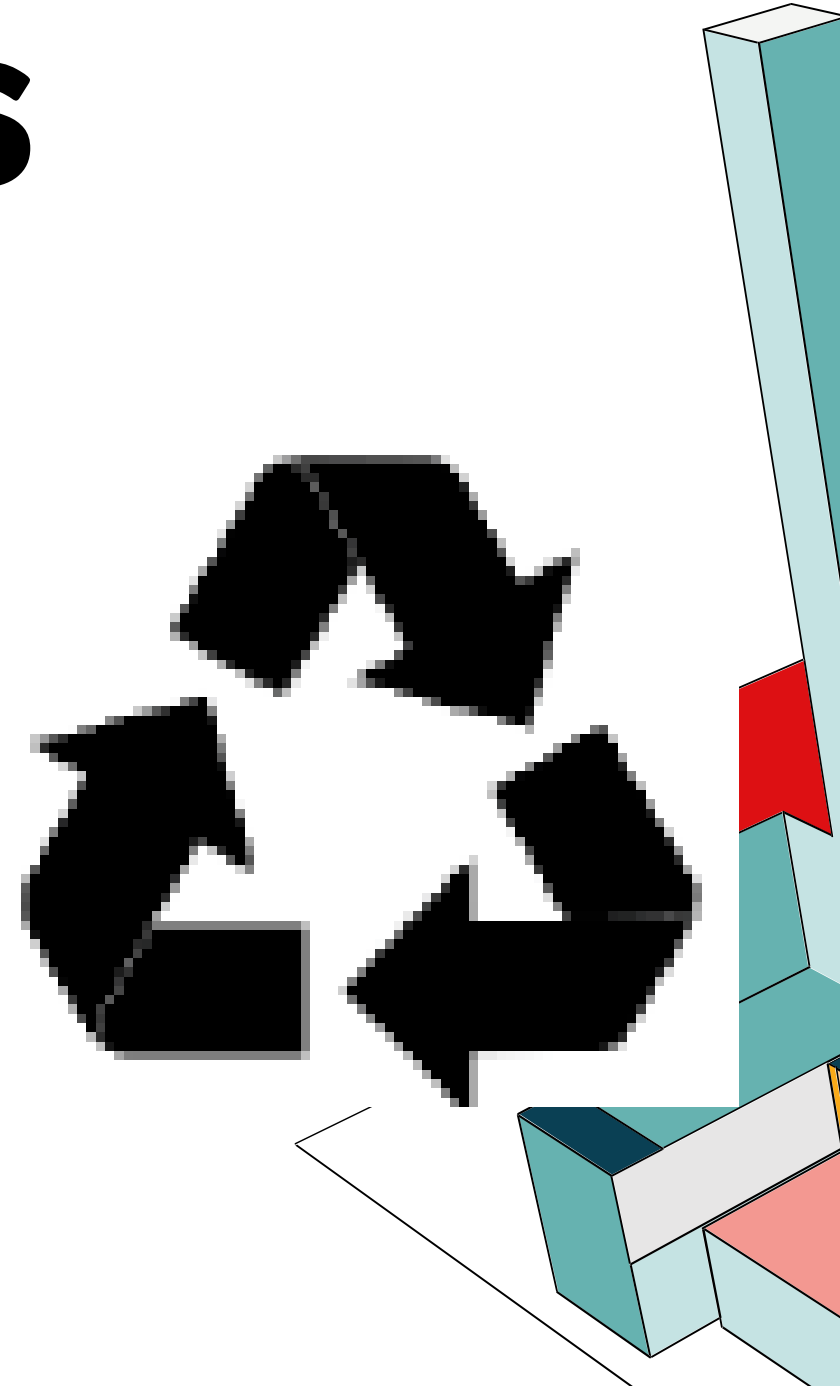

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 9. A circle with a line through it is a symbol that represents cancel or stop and may be over the top of another symbol.

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 10. Three arrows going around a triangle is a symbol that represents recycle or recycling. Anything with this symbol that is not crossed out should be recycled.

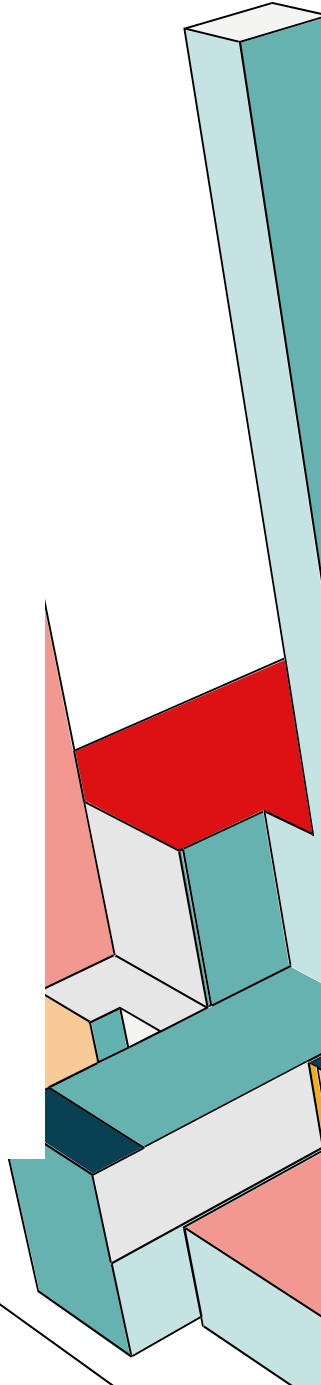

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 11. A symbol with a series of boxes and jagged lines with boxes in the corners like that shown here is a QR Code and used to store information for scanning.

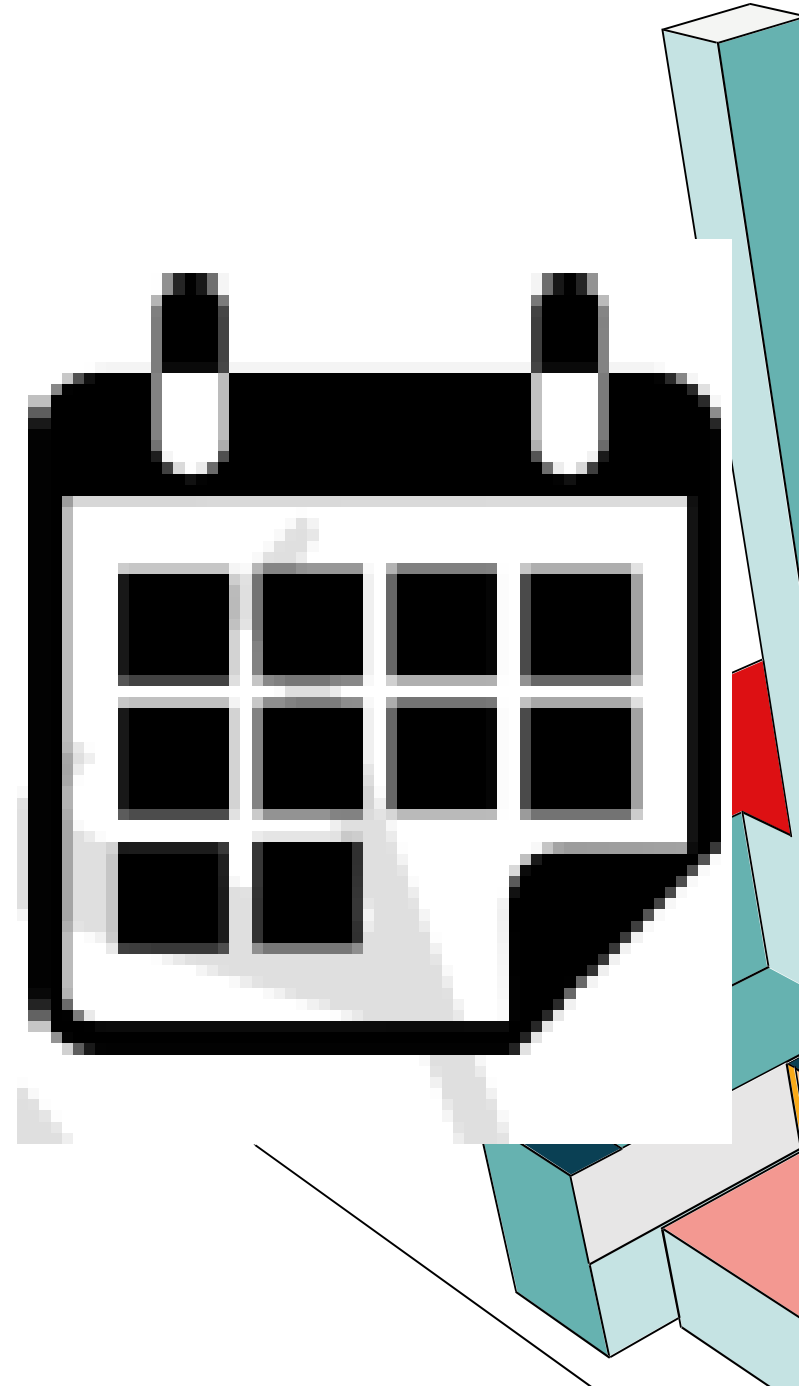

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 12. A padlock symbol is used to represent when anything is locked or secure

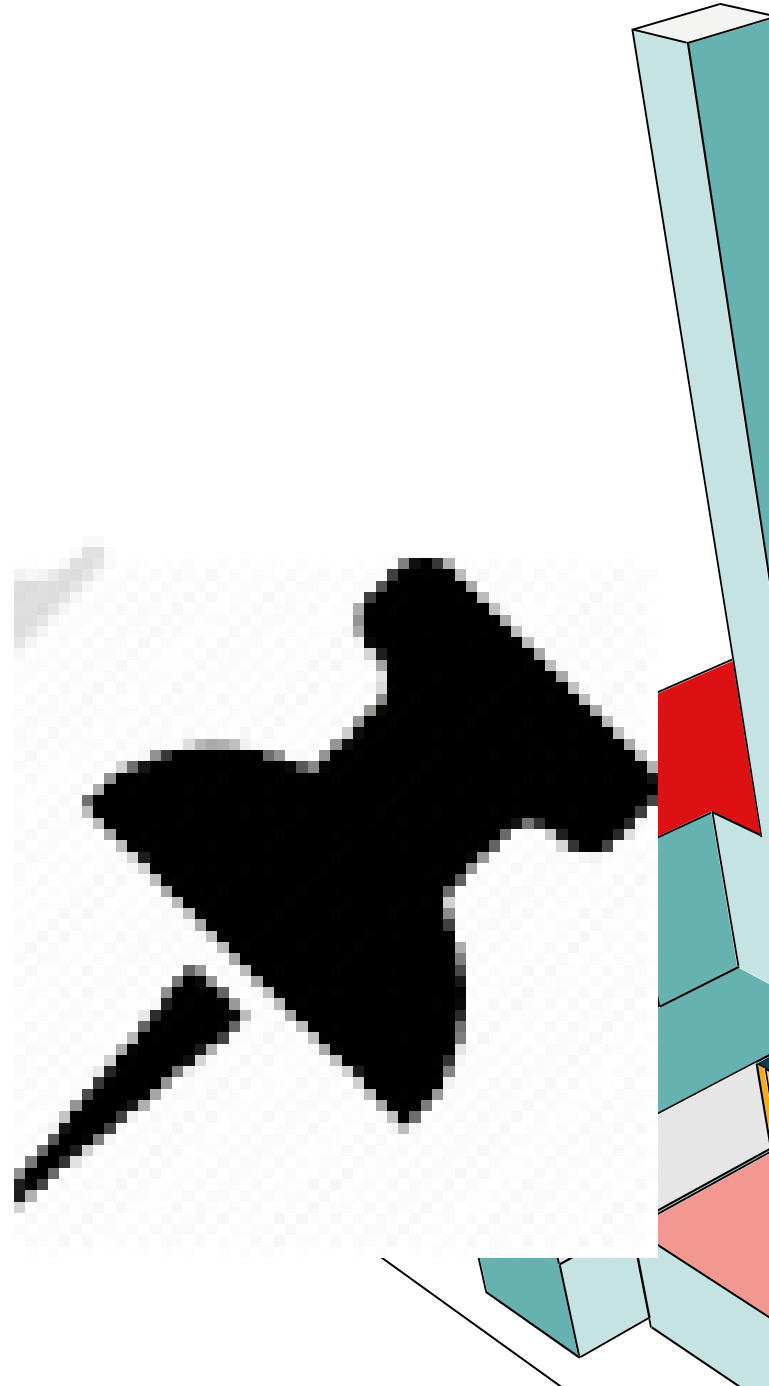

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 13. A calendar icon is used to represent an option that allows the user to view a calendar, view date related information, or schedule an event.

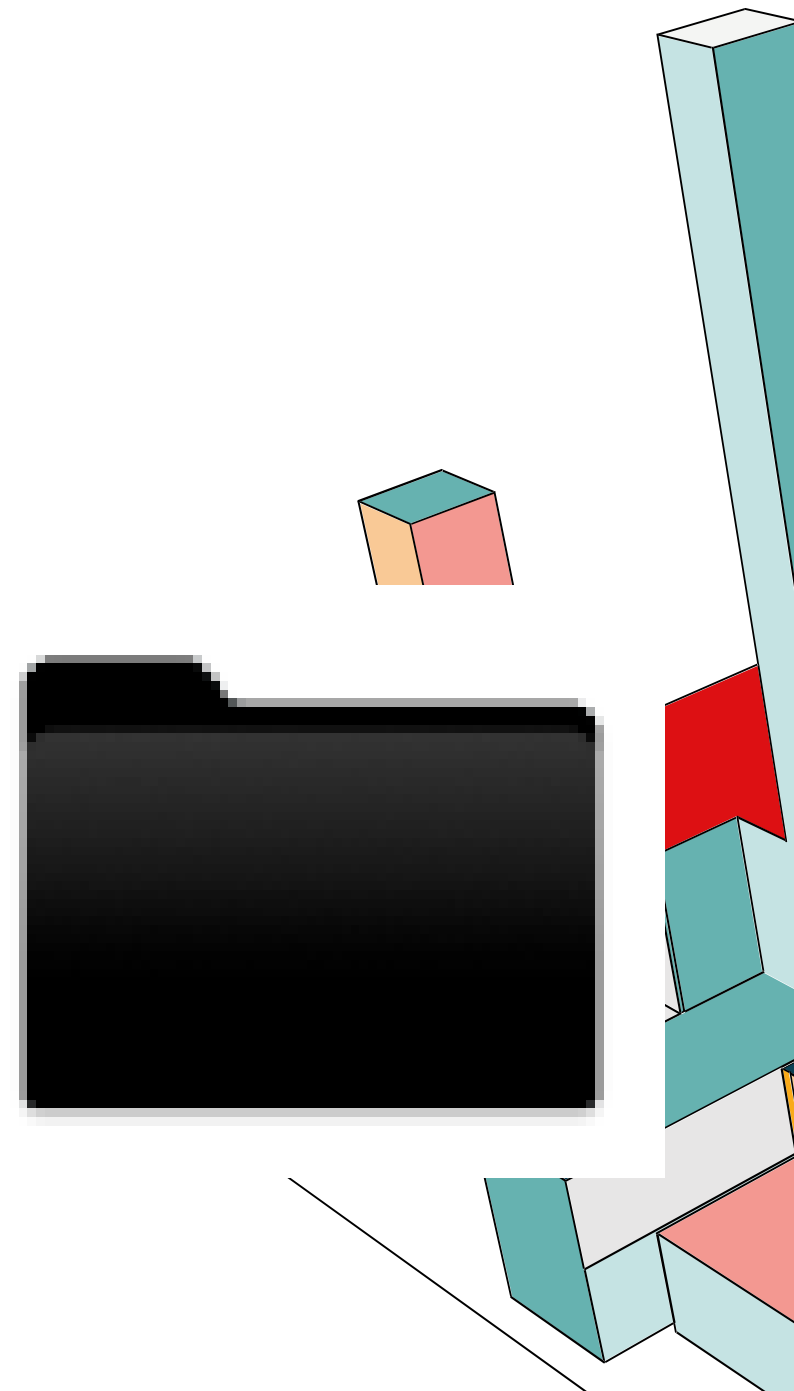

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 14. The thumbtack symbol is used to represent the ability to pin an object to the screen.

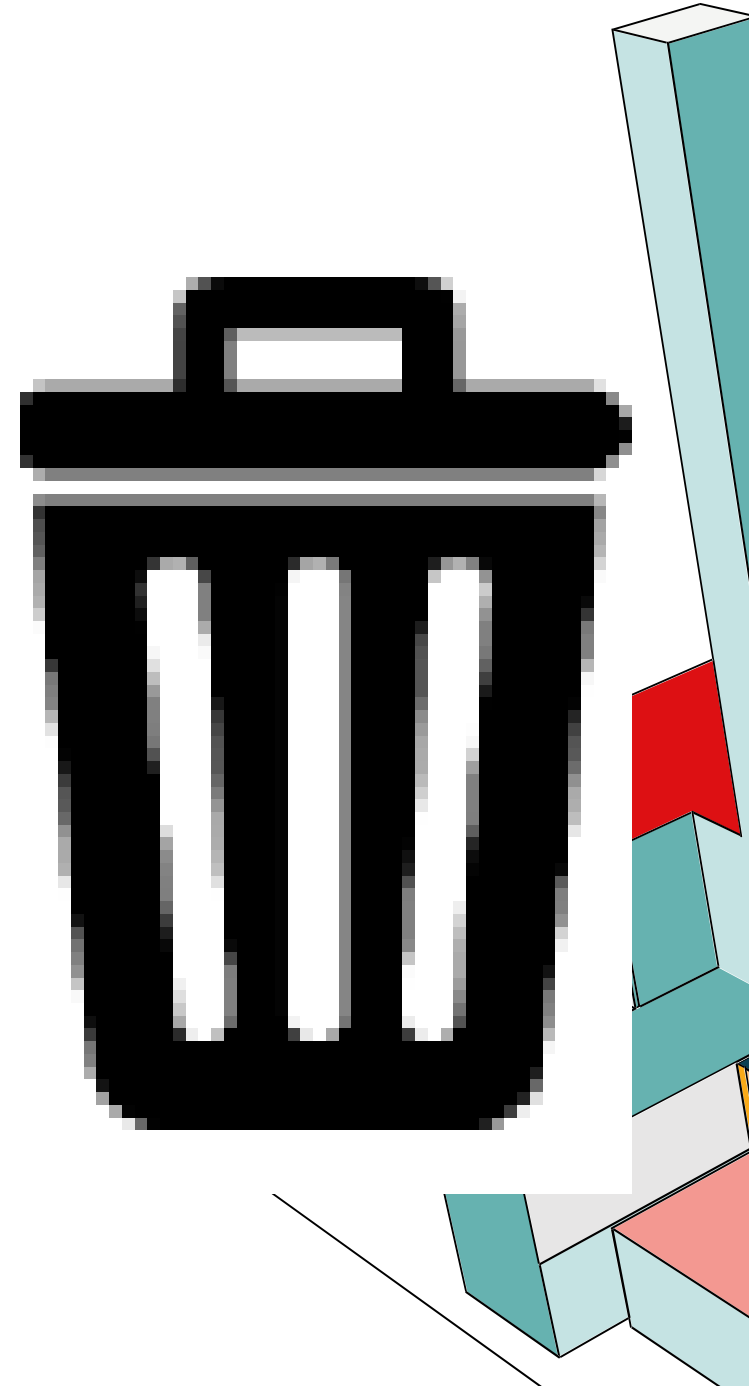

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 15. A symbol of a folder represents an area capable of storing other files and folders on a computer.

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 16. A symbol of a trash can or a recycle bin is a symbol used to represent deleting a file or another object on the computer and may be a container for any deleted items.

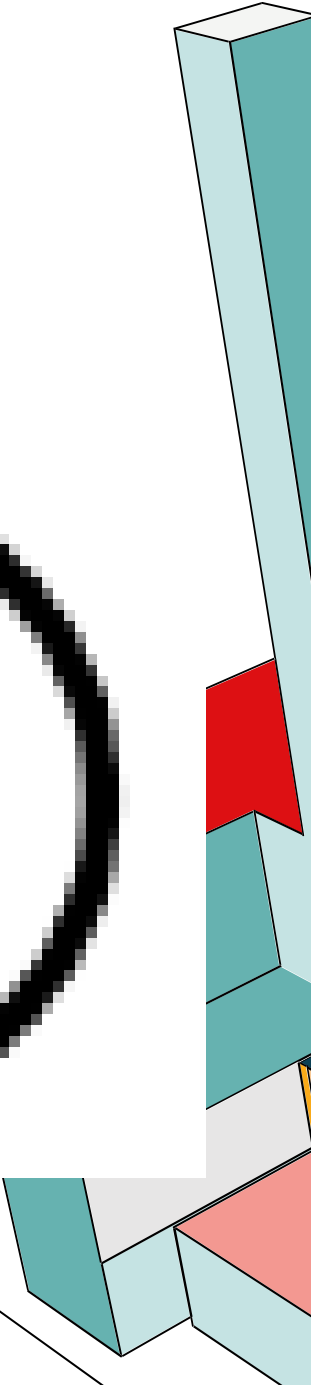

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 17. The fire symbol can have many different meanings when used on a computer, software program, or an Internet web page.

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 18. A C with a circle surrounding it is used to represent a Copyright.

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 19. An R with a circle surrounding it is used to represent a registered mark.

GENERAL SYMBOLS

- 20. A TM with a circle surrounding it or TM by itself is used to represent a trademark.

